OBITUARIES

George 'Doc' Jacobs,
St. Michael's Coach

BURDINGTON, VT — "Doc" Jacobs, 74, longtime football and basketball coach at St. Michael's College, died at home Tuesday.

Jacobs, who had a heart attack on Wednesday, had been a fixture on the college campus for over 40 years. He began coaching football in 1955 and basketball in 1962. He led the Bobcats to many conference championships and was inducted into the college's hall of fame in 1984.

Jacobs was born in Burlington, Vermont, and attended the University of Vermont, where he played basketball. He spent a year in the Navy during World War II before returning to Vermont to begin his coaching career.

More Obituaries
On Page 34

Marine Capt Rumley,
Resident of Medford

Capt. William Rumley, resident of Medford, Massachusetts, died on May 16, 1960.

Rumley, who served as a captain in the United States Marine Corps, was a native of Medford and a graduate of Medford High School. He attended college at Tufts University and later studied at Harvard University.

Rumley began his military career in 1943 and served in various capacities during World War II. He was awarded the Purple Heart and the Silver Star for his service.

LATER OBITUARIES

Yonetsu Ota, 86

Yonetsu Ota, 86, died on May 16, 1960. He was a resident of Medford, Massachusetts, and a native of Japan.

Ota was a farmer who owned a small farm in Medford. He was active in the community and was involved in various community organizations.

More Obituaries
On Page 34

PRICELESS
as a symbol of
DEVOTION

To These Monument Dealers

PEG'S OPEN A MIDSUMMER NIGHT DREAM AT THE PEP'S OPEN A MIDSUMMER NIGHT DREAM AT THE PEP'S OPEN A MIDSUMMER NIGHT DREAM AT THE PEP'S OPEN A MIDSUMMER NIGHT DREAM AT THE PEP'S OPEN A MIDSUMMER NIGHT DREAM AT THE Marine Capt Rumley, Resident of Medford

Capt Rumley was injured when the helicopter in which he was riding was shot down during "Operation Hastings." Since then he has been in the Balboa Hospital, Vietnam, Chelsea Naval and Shattuck Hospitals.

He was born in Winchester, graduated from Medford High School in 1960, and attended Medford High School for Boys in 1961 and from Boston College in 1965.

He entered the Marine Corps after receiving his degree in business administration and was attached to the First Marine Division in Vietnam since August, 1966.

Cpl Rumley is stationed in Dong Ha, Vietnam with the Third Division, serving in his second year there.

Capt Rumley also leaves his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Bradley, of Medford, and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Rumley of Charlestown.

A solemn high Mass of requiem will be celebrated at 11 Tuesday at St. Francis of Assisi Church, Medford.

Marine Capt Rumley played baseball in the City League while attending Medford High School and was a member of the Post 1012, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He leaves his parents, Robert P. and Beatrice C. (Bradley); two sisters, Miss Andrea Rumley; and four brothers, Michael T., Mark E., John G., and Marine Cpl Stephen J. Rumley, all of Medford.

Cpl Rumley played baseball in the City League while attending Medford High School and was a member of the Post 1012, Veterans of Foreign Wars.