OBITUARIES

Herman Dana
Realty Man 50 Years, 70

Herman Dana, 50, of the Real Estate world, died yesterday at his home, 70th Street and 70th Avenue, South Boston. He was 50 years old.

Dana was a member of the Real Estate Board of the City of Boston. He was also a member of the American Realty Association of Massachusetts and the American Real Estate Association.

Dana was born in Boston and was educated in the public schools of the city.

He is survived by his wife,
Mrs. Eliza Dana, and one son, John Dana.

Lt. Lufkin, 25, Is Killed in Va. Air Crash

Thomas Lufkin, 25, a lieutenant in the U.S. Navy Air Force, died yesterday in a plane crash near Virginia.

Lufkin was on a training flight when the plane went down. He was identified as the only survivor of the crash.

Lufkin was a graduate of William and Mary College and had been in the Navy for four years.

M. Atwood, Chelsea
Dead at 100

Alton Atwood, 100,
reached by a telegraph
from the American Legion, is dead at his home in Chelsea.

Atwood was a veteran of World War I and was active in the American Legion for many years.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Marion McCarthy, 75, and Mrs.
Mary Atwood, 72, both of Chelsea.

Mrs. Wolbach, Leader at Radcliffe: 86

Mrs. Alice Wolbach, 86, was a leader at Radcliffe College and was one of the original members of the Radcliffe Women's League.

She was born in Boston and graduated from Radcliffe in 1904.

Mrs. Wolbach was a member of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts and the Boston Art Club.

She is survived by her husband, Dr. John Wolbach, and two daughters, Mrs.
Mary Wolbach, 80, and Mrs.
Alice Wolbach, 83.

Harold E. Quinn
Retired Rb Policeman

Harold E. Quinn, 50, of Franklin St., Alton, a retired Boston police officer, was killed recently in a plane crash near Boston.

Quinn was a member of the Boston police department for 25 years.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Quinn, and two children, John Quinn, 20, and Eileen Quinn, 18.

24 Americans
Killed in Action

Mrs. Esther Miller
Rites in West Roxbury

A young daughter of Mrs. Arthur Miller, was killed in action.

She is survived by her father, Mr. Arthur Miller, and her mother, Mrs.
Esther Miller.

Other obituaries and news can be found on page 8.
OBITUARIES

Herman Dana, Realty Man
50 Years, 70

Herman Dana, 70, of the Hotel Somerset, 400 Commonwealth Ave., Back Bay, Boston real estate man and philanthropist, died yesterday at Beth Israel Hospital.

Born in Boston, he was associated for 50 years with the real estate firm of Myer Dana & Sons.

Mr. Dana prepared at Boston Latin School and graduated from Harvard College cum laude in 1918.

Much of Mr. Dana's philanthropy had been associated with Hebrew University of Jerusalem. He was a founder, member and a director of the American Friends of the Hebrew University, and was donor of the Herman Dana Division in Child Psychiatry at the Hadassah Rothschild Center of the school.

Lt Lufkin, 25, Is Killed in Va. Air Crash

GLOUCESTER — Lt. jg Thomas Patrick Lufkin, U.S.N., 25, of Firm Court, Virginia Beach, Va., who was born here, and two other Navy men were killed Wednesday in a jet airplane crash off the Virginia coast.

Lt Lufkin was a graduate of New Preparatory School and Boston College. He and his brother Paul L., now a teacher and hockey coach at Deerfield Academy, were members of the same varsity hockey squad at B.C.

He also leaves his wife, Linda H. (Hohweiler) Lufkin; a 7-month-old daughter, Samantha; his father, Leo E. Lufkin of Gloucester; another brother, George E. of Centerville, Va., and a sister, Mrs. Patricia A. Bradley of Vienna.

A Mass will be sung tomorrow at noon in the chapel of the Oceana Naval Air Station in Virginia, and a union service for all three men will be held there on Tuesday at 2 p.m.

Tentatively planned is a service here with a solemn military Mass on Thursday at 10 a.m. in St. Ann's Church.

Alton Atwood
Of Chelsea

HERMAN DANA

... in 1940.

He was an honorary trustee of Beth Israel Hospital and the Combined Jewish Philanthropies, a trustee of the Hebrew Teachers College and the Hebrew Free Loan Society, a member of...